Q. 1. Write a short note on the criminal procedure in the criminal justice system in India.

Ans. A crime is reported to the police and the police file FIR (First Information Report). Then the investigation and arrests are done by police. The police then file a charge sheet in the Magistrate's court. The trial begins in court. The public Prosecutor represents the victim and the accused can defend themselves with the help of a lawyer.

Once the trial is over, the accused is either convicted or acquitted. If convicted, appeal to the higher court can be made by the accused.
