

English Letter “Thanks for Gifts to a Patient or Invalid”

Dear Mr. Jashan,

Now that I can flinty sit up and write letters. I want to thanks you both for the computer and looks you sent me while I was ill and most of all, for your many cheerful notes, you have no idea how much they meant to me!

You’ve been more than kind, won’t ever forget it, my love and deepest gratitude, and now always.

Sincerely yours,

Balraj
