
ENGLISH – WRITING TASK

MAIN COURSE

Q. 1 You are Ajay / Anjali 123. Parade Ground Road, Bengaluru. You are interested in doing a short term course in computer programming during your summer vacation. Write a letter to the Director, VNL Computers, St. Paul's Road, Bengaluru – 20, inquiring about the course, duration, fees and other details. Use the hints given below :

HINTS :-

- types of courses - Certificate courses - Diploma courses
- duration of the courses - 6 months to 2 years
- fee structure - installment basis - full amount payment
- timings - batches
- scope for job - if centre provides placements etc.

(Formal letter)

Q.2 You are Mohit / Mini of class VIII. Write a report for your school magazine on 'Heavy School Bags'. Write the impact and consequences of such bags on students using the hints given below:

HINTS :-

age of information technology - but students become the beast of burden - an average school bag of middle school student weights 6 to 10 kg – prescribed text books, volume of note books for class work, home work, test work - all these books piled up exceeds the students own height – students bogged down - their energy sapped - physically exhausted – mentally tired - students not receptive – heavy school bags not essential - should be done away with - education should develop head, heart and health - but not to demoralize students.

Q.3 You are Shonit, the Secretary of the Activity Club of your School. Your school is organizing special yoga classes for the students of your section. Write a notice is not more than 50 words giving necessary details. Put the notice in a box.

WORK BOOK

Q.1 You are Nithin / Najma. You come across the following information on the rising popularity of Video games. You feel horrified at the violence that most of these Games depict. Write a short news feature on ‘Video games and Violence’ for the ‘Young Readers’ supplement of your local newspaper. Use the hints given below.

HINTS :-

latest passion – craze among children – electronic media – exposure – modern outlook - video games depict violence – tender minds – impressionable age – violence – losing human values – injuring the very psyche of children – solution – constructive games – healthy environment.
