

UNIT-1

Wake up!
Neha's Alarm Clock

Let's read and recite

Wake up!

Wake up! Wake up!
It's a lovely day.
Oh! Please get up
And come and play.
The birds are singing in the trees,
And you can hear the buzzing bees.

Wake up! Wake up!
It's a lovely day.
Oh! Please get up
And come and play.
It's much too late to lie in bed,
So hurry up, you sleepy head.

Wash and dress
And come on out –
Everyone is up and about.
The cow, the horses, the ducks
And the sheep,
The tiniest chicken
Cheep-cheep-cheep
Wake up!

– C. Fletcher

Neha's Alarm Clock

Narrator : Ring! Ring! Ring! Off goes the alarm clock at six in the morning. Neha makes a face and covering her ears with a pillow, snuggles under the warm blanket. But she knows she has to get up. She mutters to herself.

Neha : This alarm clock always rings at six and pulls me out of the bed! It's so unfair...Oh, how I would love to sleep a little longer in the morning! I wish this clock would forget its job sometimes.

Narrator : Something falls. Neha smiles.

Neha : Oh! My clock has fallen. How happy I am! Tomorrow I can get up late.

Narrator : Next morning there is no alarm. So Neha sleeps and sleeps. The small chirpy birds which come to the window sill every morning find Neha still sleeping.

Birds : Wake up dear! Wake up fast!

Narrator : Neha gets up with a start.

Neha : Oh, no! If it's not the alarm clock, it's these birds... why don't they leave me alone?

Narrator : Even this wish of Neha's comes true. The next morning there is not only no alarm clock, there are no birds either. But there is someone else who does not want her to miss the school bus. Can you guess who it is? The big bright Sun! He fills Neha's room with a warm smile.

Neha : Oh, my eyes! Now it's the Sun waking me up! Why can't he let me be?

Narrator : Even this wish of Neha's comes true. Next morning the Sun is behind the clouds. So, Neha snores till she hears her mother's voice...

Mother : Wake up, sleepy head. You will miss the bus.

Neha : Oh no! Why does mother have to wake me up?

Narrator : There is no escape now. Neha gets up and gets ready. Can you imagine what happens the next day? Neha wakes up with a start. Her watch says it is six o'clock. She calls out to her mother.

Neha : Ma, who woke me up today?

Narrator : Mother smiles.

Mother : Who else? You, of course!

Neha : But, I was sleeping,
how could I ...?

Mother : Now, tell me, why do you
eat your lunch
every day at one in the afternoon?

Neha : I feel hungry.

Mother : Why do you sleep at nine every night?

Neha : Because I feel sleepy.

Mother : There is a clock inside you which tells you when to eat, when to sleep and when to wake up.

Neha : Oh! Ooh! I better rush now. I don't want to miss the bus.

Mother : RELAX! Today is Sunday!

Neha : Oh! Oh! Oh!

Unit 1

Poem : Wake up!
Story : Neha's Alarm Clock

This Unit focuses on appreciation of the beauty in nature, the magic of words and to give children experiences in expressing their feelings. This Unit is also a listening Unit – it gives children something to listen to as you read the poem to them. Ask children why they like the poem and read the poem again for interesting and beautiful sounds. Begin this Unit by pointing to the pictures and ask children what beautiful colours they see. Provide a print rich environment.

Warm up

It is important to do warm up exercises related to the theme, like, let children stretch their arms, exercise and jog as if to wake up wide. Relate this to the natural beauty of the morning.

Reading time

Read the chapter to the students at a stretch, giving the meanings of the new and difficult words so that they can understand the text. Use appropriate words, expressions, phrases in different situations. This can help you to assess the child's ability to listen with attention for a reasonable length of time, share the main idea of the text and accelerate recall skills.

Give the children a chance to read individually.

Sharing time

Involve the class in a group reading session. Let children add meaning with voice modulation and body gestures.

Dramatise the play for the morning assembly. Let each child express what they feel when they have to get up in the morning.

Team time

- Play memory games. You can write down ten new words from the lesson on the blackboard. Let the children look at the words for two minutes. Ask the children to close their eyes. You can then erase one word. The children will then open their eyes and identify the word that has been erased.
- Since breakfast is important for good health, each child could be asked what he had for breakfast. Then ask them to give the importance of milk, lassi, butter. Let them add what they eat / will like to eat.
- Discuss the importance of time and punctuality with the class. While discussing other ways of finding time, the sun dial, shadows and position of sun can be introduced.

Environment

Create a Junior Green Brigade as a group of keen environmentalists who assist in keeping the school green and clean; they can be actively involved in successful projects against crackers and banning the use of polybags in the school and community. The school can encourage cloth bags which are an attractive and environment-friendly alternative to plastic.
