1.
  - a. Sebastian had just broken a jail with help of Michael and was on the rooftop.
  - b. Sebastian was referring to be rescued by a helicopter from the jail, before the guards catch up on him.
  - c. The idea of helicopter rescuing Sebastian was good.
  - d. However, the helicopter was slow in landing.
2.
  - a. The trauma of playing this virtual game
  - b. They spent their entire Saturday in the computer fair.
  - c. They bought a video game.
  - d. The narrator spoke these words.
3. There are various instances in the chapter to describe that the second game seemed very real, such as “As I lowered myself down I felt the dragon's fiery breath”, “And the whole time I could hear and feel and even smell the evil dragon following in close pursuit”, etc.
4. Warzone can be categorised under simulation games. Wildwest is a strategy game. Dragon quest is a fantasy role-playing game and Jailbreak is an action game.
5. According to Michael, Sebastian was probably playing those games when he banged his head in the accident. The computer had saved his memory into its own. Michael bought a lot of games at the fair. Some of them were the stolen ones of Sebastian. When Michael was playing those games, the computer was trying to retrieve Sebastian’s memory.
6. Sebastian Shultz was badly injured in a car accident. His condition was described by doctors as critical but stable. In spite of doctors’ efforts Sebastian could not regain consciousness. He went into coma.
7. Sebastian chopped the princess’s long plaits & tied them together to form a rope & managed to flee from the tower. He & Michael headed towards the dungeons. However, the dragon followed them. As they were going down the steps, the dragon appeared & caught Sebastian. Michael tried to kill the dragon but he had already taken Sebastian. Thus, the second attempt to save Sebastian failed as well. The game literally drove him crazy that he couldn't realise that he can win the game & come out of it alive in one piece.
