

Where Do All the Teachers Go?

LET'S BEGIN

For a little child a teacher is special. It is difficult for a small child to think of his/her teacher as an ordinary person.

*Where do all the teachers go
When it's four o'clock?
Do they live in houses
And do they wash their socks?*

*Do they wear pyjamas
And do they watch TV?
And do they pick their noses,
The same as you and me?*

*Do they live with other people?
Have they mums and dads?
And were they ever children,
And were they ever bad?*

*Did they ever, never spell right;
Did they ever make mistakes?
Were they punished in the corner
If they pinched the chocolate flakes?
Did they ever lose their hymn books?*

*Did they ever leave their greens?
Did they scribble on the desk tops?
Did they wear old dirty jeans?*

*I'll follow one back home today;
I'll find out what they do.
Then I'll put it in a poem
That they can read to you.*

THINKING ABOUT THE POEM

1. Answer these questions:
 - (i) Why does the poet want to know where the teachers go at four o'clock?
 - (ii) What are the things normal people do that the poet talks about?
 - (iii) What does he imagine about
 - (a) where teachers live?
 - (b) what they do at home?
 - (c) the people with whom they live?
 - (d) their activities when they were children in school?
 - (iv) Why does the poet wonder if teachers also do things that other people do?
 - (v) How does the poet plan to find out? What will he do once he finds out?
2. What do you think these phrases from the poem mean?
 - (i) punished in the corner.
 - (ii) leave their greens.
