

Write a letter to your Younger Brother Advising him to Avoid bad Company, Family Letter

Dear Lalit,

I have come to know through some reliable source that of late you have been mixing up with bad boys, the news has really shocked me. You are in the College hostel and there is none to guide you. In such circumstances you should be very cautious and choose your friends very carefully.

It is my sincere advice to you shun bad company. A person is known by the company he keeps. Your association with indiscipline and undesirable people is bound to bring disgrace to you and our family. I have been told that many of these bad lot are drug-addicts and gamblers. Just think of us how hard we have to work here to send you there for higher studies.

If you do not show improvement in your conduct and studies soon, I shall have to come there. It is better you discontinue your studies than you land someday in the police lockup. There is still time to mend yourself. If father comes to know about it, he may even collapse.

I hope you will show soon considerable improvement in your conduct yours affectionately,