Class: IV Subject : English Adjective Recapitulation

Definition: An adjective is a word that describes a noun or a pronoun or adds to the meaning of a noun.

Kinds of Adjectives

- 1. Adjectives of Quality
- 2. Adjective of Quantity
- 3. Adjective of Number
- 4. Demonstrative Adjective
- 5. Interrogative Adjective
- 6. Possessive Adjective
- 1. Adjectives of quality indicates the quality or tells what kind of a person or thing we are talking about

Eg.: 1. She is a good girl.

- 2. Rohan is a co-operative boy.
- 2. Adjective of quantity refers to quantity of a thing.

Eg.: 1. Give me some water.

2. She wants a little milk.

much, few, many, more are adjective of quantity. It answers the question 'how much'

Note: Adjectives of quantity are used with uncountable nouns.

- 3. Adjective of number answers the question 'how many'
 - Eg. 1. The building has five storeys.
 - 2. There are two note books in my bag.

Note: They are used with countable nouns.

- 4. Demonstrative Adjective indicates which person or thing is meant or talked about.
 - Eg. 1. That house is hers.
 - 2. These drawings are made by him.

5.	Interrogative Adjectives are used to ask questions.
		1. Whose book is this?
		2. Which story did you like the best?
6.	Possessive Adjective indicates possession.
	Eg.	1. My house has five rooms.
		2. Her dress is very colourful.
7.	Proper	Adjective- They describe a thing by referring it to some p	roper noun.
	Eg.	1. The Indian saint spread the message of peace.
		2. The British soldiers fought bravely.
	Note: A	A proper adjective must begin with a capital letter.
	Proper	adjectives are possessive adjectives.
Ex1
I.	Underline	adjectives and state their kind
1.	There is some pickle in the jar.
2.	Please give me your pencil.
3.	Which book did you purchase?
4.	Two boys helped the blind man cross the road.
5.	I have sufficient food for today.
6.	Those boys stood in a queue.
7.	Siddhi is an honest girl.
8.	She bought a golden ribbon.
9.
10. Some boys shouted at the top of their voice.
		Ex2
II.		the blanks with suitable adjectives
1.		toy will you buy?
2.	Aman had a rupee note.
3.	girl stood first in the race.
4.	There are rooms in my house.
5.	We saw the	e most match today.	