

Name:		Subject: SS
Class: IV	Section: Roll No:	Topics: Our beautiful country, and Trade and industry

SECTION – AI Fill in the blanks

1. The Southern part of India is a _____
2. _____ is a big metal box used to transport goods over very long distances.
3. The offices of the Government of India are based in _____
4. An industry converts _____ to _____
5. The exchange of goods from one person to another is called _____
6. When a country sells goods and services to another country, the transaction is termed as _____
7. We need _____ to convert raw materials to finished goods.
8. When a country buys goods and services from another country, the transaction is termed as _____

II Answer the following questions

1. Name any five of India's neighbouring countries.

2. List the five major physical divisions of India

3. Write a short note on cottage industry.

4. Differentiate between small scale and large scale industries.

5. Industries are important for the overall progress of the country but they cause lot of pollution. How can you reduce the pollution caused by them?

6. India is a very beautiful country with many physical features like mountains, islands, plateaus and deserts. Which one you would like to prefer to live on why?
