

Thanks, Letter, for Purchase of Software, complete letter of Business example.

This type of thanking letter can most probably be appropriate for any good relation customers, clients, prospective buyers as some business strategy in order to create a rapport and sustain such esteemed customers in the long run. This would mostly comprise of sugar-coated words to thank and seek for continuous support so as to build human relations beyond business.

To,

Mr. Ravi Sharma

Manager

ABC Software

Hari Nagar

New Delhi -110064

Subject: Thank sincerely for having purchased software accessories

Dear Sir/ Madam,

We at PQC Software Solutions Ltd., feel privileged to find an exuberant opportunity to thank our esteemed customers, clients; for being an integral part of our organization an allowing us to serve you better.

Further we desire to put on record our earnest thanks for the purchase of assembled software package for our company, for the invoice bill dated 10th September, 2011. Sir beyond just maintaining a client and customer relation; we strive to take along the esteemed customers like you.

We would also like to take this prospect to extend our support in case of any problems or replacements related with the product. Looking forward for your continuous business dealing with us in the future.

Thanking You

Sincerely