

The Story of Ramakrishna

TEXTUAL QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Questions:

Q.1. What did Ramakrishna see on the wall of the corridor of the palace ?

Ans :- Ramakrishna saw a number of paintings on the wall of the corridor of the palace.

Q.2. What did he do ?

Ans :- He stood before the painting of king's father for a few minutes.

Q.3. Why did he do so ?

Ans :- He did so because he took a brush and some black ink and drew two black lines across the picture.

Q.4. How was Ramakrishna punished ?

Ans :- The king called him and told him not to show his dirty face again. Thus Ramakrishna was punished.

Q.5. What did Ramakrishna do next morning ?

Ans :- When the court was in session, Ramakrishna entered there in a strange figure by covering his head with a pot in which was two holes for see.

Q.6. Why did people laugh ?

Ans :- People laughed because Ramakrishna entered the court in a strange figure by covering his head with a pot in which was two holes to see.

Q.7. What made the king pardon Ramakrishna ?

Ans :- The king pardoned Ramakrishna to see his cleverless because he obeyed King's order not to show his dirty face by covering his head with a pot.

Q.8. Suggest a little to the story ?

Ans :- Cleaver Ramakrishna is the title of the story.

Word Note

Waist deep : ককালৰ সমান।