

The Tale of Custard The Dragon

Answers to NCERT Questions

Thinking about the Poem

1. Who are the characters in this poem? List them with their pet names.

Ans: The following are the characters with their pet names:

Characters	Pet Names
Little black kitten	Ink
Little grey mouse	Blink
Little yellow dog	Mustard
The dragon	Custard

2. Why did Custard cry for a nice safe cage? Why is the dragon called “cowardly dragon”?

Ans: The Custard was coward. That is why, he was called “cowardly dragon”. All other animals laughed at him. He did not like that. So he cried for a nice safe cage.

3. “Belinda tickled him, she tickled him unmerciful...” Why?

Ans: Belinda tickled Custard to tease him for his cowardice.

4. The poet has employed many poetic devices in the poem. For example: “Clashed his tail like iron in a dungeon” —the poetic device here is a simile. Can you, with your partner, list some more such poetic devices used in the poem?

Ans: Similes used in the poem:

—And the little yellow dog was sharp as Mustard.

—Belinda is as brave as a barrel full of bears

—Snorting like an engine.

—He went at the pirate like a robin at a worm.

5. Read stanza three again to know how the poet describes the appearance of the dragon.

Ans: In stanza three of the poem, the poet describes the physical side of the dragon. By stating his ‘big sharp teeth’, ‘spikes’ and ‘scales’, the poet makes him fearful.

6. Can you find out the rhyme scheme of two or three stanzas of the poem?

Ans: The rhyme scheme is:

Second stanza—aa bb

Third stanza—aa bb

7. Writers use words to give us a picture or image without actually saying what they mean. Can you trace some images used in the poem?

Ans: Some of the images used in the poem are:

— Mouth like a fireplace

— Chimney for a nose

— Daggers on his toes

— His beard was long, one leg was wood.

8. Do you find The Tale of Custard the Dragon to be a serious or a light-hearted poem ? Give reasons to support your answer.

Ans: It is a light-hearted poem. The animals have been treated as human beings. There is irony in the poem. The animals who boast of their power, prove to be cowards. But the dragon whom everyone calls cowardly, fights bravely and kills the pirate.

Long Answer Questions (100–150 words: 8 Marks each)

1. Why do you think Custard, the dragon was called a coward? How was Custard able to save all his housemates from the pirate? What values should Belinda have possessed, so that Custard too could have been among her favourites?

Ans: The dragon appeared to be a coward as he always cried for a safe cage, so he was called a cowardly dragon. Later, when the pirate entered the house with pistols in his left and right hand, everyone was scared and ran away and disappeared, except Custard who faced him boldly and attacked him, hit him hard with his forceful tail and gobbled every bit of him. Belinda should have been nice to him. She should have made him feel comfortable and safe in the house, instead of laughing and making fun of him with other pets. Belinda should have been protective towards him.

2. Describe the fight between the dragon and the pirate.

Ans: The dragon had big sharp teeth, and spikes on top of him and scales underneath, but everyone laughed at him as he always cried for a safe cage, whereas everyone boasted about their bravery. But when the pirate entered, all were scared and ran away, except Custard who faced him boldly, attacked him, hit him hard with his forceful tail and gobbled every bit of him. All of them later felt obliged to Custard for saving their lives.
