

HOTS (Higher Order Thinking Skills)

Q.1. Why does a fish die when kept outside water, even though there is oxygen in the surrounding air?

Ans. When fish is kept outside water, the gills become dry and stick to each other. Thus, gas exchange cannot occur.