There was no place to stay for outsiders like Jatryabhai. It was very difficult to find some work and earn money. The conditions were even worse, it was very hard for him to pay for the food, house, medicines, school fees and even water was also to be purchased. Even his small son, Sidya had to work to earn money.

Ans. They used to live in a small village that was very beautiful, peaceful and simple. There were farms, freely available water, animals and small schools. The environment was also not much polluted. As compared to that old village, this new place that is city is very noisy, crowded and polluted. The people have a different culture and way of talking. They do not get easily mixed up. Everything is a very expensive even they have to pay for the water. They are finding it very difficult to survive in this new place.

26. Is their language and way of living are different from that of the people here? In what ways?

Ans. Yes, their language and way of living is very different from the people of this place. They used to speak in Rajasthani language and their ways of talking in hindi is also very difficult. Their way of living is also very different. They used to prepare food on chulhas. They used to wear simple clothes, men used to wear 'dhoti-kurta' and 'pagri' on the head and women used to wear 'ghaghra-choli'. But in this situation, at least they have a house to live and also since they already have a job so at least they have enough money to survive.

30. “Some people say that city people do not create garbage. Cities are dirty because of slums”. How do you feel about it? Discuss and debate between yourselves.

Ans. It is incorrect to say that city people do not create garbage. It is because of slum's. This is because people in the cities are responsible for shifting the village people to the cities. They construct dams, factories etc. in the villages and force the villagers to empty those places. The villagers are not provided proper houses in the cities, they are just given small place to live in with no proper provision for toilet and bathing. As a consequence these poor people are forced to use the roads and drains for this purpose. This causes dirt and foul smelling areas. Actually the difficult situations in which they are forced to live are responsible for this. On the other hand, the city people cause a lot of pollution due to the vehicles, factories etc. Thus the given statement is incorrect.

- (i) They are not provided proper houses in the big cities, they are just given small huts to stay with no proper facility for bathing and toilet.
- (ii) They have the provision of electricity but it remains for only sometime. Also, they have to pay the electricity bills which they cannot afford.
- (iii) There are taps but with no water.. They have to pay for the water also.
- (iv) They are not well qualified therefore it is very difficult for them to get the good jobs. Even their children also have to work.
- (v) There are schools for the children but it is very difficult for them to understand the new language. Also the teacher does not pay much attention to them.
