Read the Passage: -

The crow is a common bird. It is found all over the world. The house crow is black in colour with a grey neck. The jungle crow is black all over. The crow can eat anything but likes to eat the food man eats. It is an intelligent and clever bird. But it is also a thief. It is fond of stealing food. It builds its nest in the branches of tall trees. The nest looks ugly from outside. But inside it is neat and cosy. The mother crow lays four or five eggs at a time. The eggs are bluish green in colour. They have brown marks on them.
