

Write a Letter to your Nephew telling him Inability to Attend his Marriage, with reply Family Letter

Inability to Attend Marriage

Dear Nephew Nevin,

I tender to you and your bride my heartiest congratulations for the happy marriage and offer my sincerest prayers for your health, wealth, prosperity and a very long life of mutual happiness.

Contrary to the preplanned programme, I am awfully sorry that I was unable to be present at the marriage celebrations because a very close and bosom friend of mine, who was accompanying me in the car, suddenly died of heart failure. I rushed him to the doctor but all efforts were in vain.

Pray, let this not mar the great joy of the occasion.

Affectionately,

Reply to above

Dear Uncle,

Profoundly moved to hear about the sudden demise of your friend, especially when he was on the way to attend our wedding.

How can a person marry and be merry when life is so short, and so uncertain! an ancient sage has rightly compared the human life with the flight of a bird through a floodlit banquet hall from darkness into darkness.

May god grant you peace in your great bereavement.

Affectionately,