

Worksheet

Our First School

Q.1. Which is our first school and what does it teach us?

Ans. Our family is our first school. We learn a lot from our family as we spend a lot of our initial time with them. All the basic knowledge comes from our family.

Q.2. Do you feel that our home is "our first school"?

Ans. Our home is our first school. I totally agree with this statement. We learn almost all the basic things such as speaking, eating habit, dressing, etiquette, and so much more at our school. It prepares us to go out and shape our life from thereon.

Q.3. Do you have any pet name that your family members use to call you?

Ans. Yes, I have a pet name. My family members call me "mishti".

Q.4. What are the fun activities that you do with your siblings?

Ans. I and my siblings do all sorts of fun activities. Some of them are:

- (a) We play peek-a-boo in our home.
- (b) We often have a lot of fun when we draw together.
- (c) We go out for cycling together.

Q.5. Write the relationship between you and your different family members.

Ans. I have following members in my family:

Name	Relationship
Anshit	Father
Aishwarya	Mother
Sumedha	Sister

Q.6. Whom do you resemble with in your family? What do you have in common?

Ans. I am just like my father, when it comes to physical appearance. Also, some of my habits are exactly same as my mother. For example, we both like to keep things clean and we both love to eat chocolates.

Q.7. Write the relationship between any two members of your family such as husband-wife, brother-sister, mother-daughter

Ans. Relationship between different members of the family:

Names of the members of the family	Their relationship
Anshit-Aishwarya	Husband-wife
Anshit- Sumedha	Mother-Father
Aishwarva-Sumedha	Mother-Daughter

Q.8. Look at the picture carefully.

Two persons in the picture resemble each other. How do you think they are related?

Ans. In the given picture, two persons who resemble each other are the girls. This means that they are sisters.

Q.9. How do you call your family members?

Ans. I call my father as "dad" and my mother as "mom". I also have a younger brother, whom I call by his pet name, "Adi".

Q.10. What are the ways to show respect to the elders in the family?

Ans. We can show respects to our elders in the following ways:

- (a) Whenever an elder relative comes to our home, we can show respect by touching their feet and greeting them
- (b) We should use soft tone while talking with our family members.
- (c) We should not use foul language.

Q.11. What does your father do? What does he teach you from his work?

Ans. My father is a businessman. He teaches me a lot of things like compassion and hard work.

Q.12. What help do you provide to your family?

Ans. I help my family in many ways:

- (a) I arrange the table before our family dinner.
- (b) I make my bed every morning.
- (c) I help my mom with some chores in the weekends.

Q.13. What does your mother do? What have you learnt from her?

Ans. My mother is a housewife. She has taught me etiquette and following a proper daily routine.

Q.14. Everyone in the family have a particular habit. Mention any habit that your family members have.

Ans. My family members have following habits:

- (a) My brother keeps on singing when he takes a bath.
- (b) My father never skips his morning walk and he walks barefoot on the grass.

Q.15. State "true" or "false"

Our first learning takes place at our home

Ans. Our first learning takes place at our home. This statement is "true".

Q.16. Anwari's family work as ____ .

Ans. Anwari's family work as dhobbis.

Q.17. State "true" or "false":

We don't learn anything important in our school.

Ans. This statement is "false" as we learn a lot from our school as we spend a lot of our time with the teachers.

Q.18. Fill in the blank:

We ____ respect our elders.

Ans. We must respect our elders.

Q.19. Name few things that you have taught to your family members.

Ans. I have taught following things to my family members:

(a) I taught my mother how to operate a computer.

(b) I taught my grandfather how to use a Smartphone.

Q.20. Name few things that you have learnt from your family members.

Ans. I have learnt following things from my family members:

(a) My cousin brother taught me how to ride a bicycle.

(b) My mom taught me how to use a knife and a fork to eat.