

In this section, we have to look for the most suitable word, that when placed in the blank, gives a correct and most appropriate meaning to the sentence. When there are two blanks, we sometimes are lured by a very suitable word given in one of the options though the other word doesn't fit in the sentence. We must select that option which gives the best sense to the sentence. For easy understanding, the meanings of the difficult words have been given after the exercise.
