

Class: IV _____
Subject: ENGLISH
Worksheet: Helping Verbs

Name _____

Date: _____

Helping Verbs: They help the main verbs to form sentences. They are also called auxiliary verbs. They indicate whether an action is done in the present or past. Example- is, am , are, was, were, shall, should ,will, would, do, does, did, can , could, has, have, had.

Q1. Circle the words that are not helping verbs:

- a. when,should,does,did
- b. but,shall,will,can
- c. do,does,is,it
- d. is,am,are,which
- e. has,had,could,on

Q2. Underline the helping verbs in the following sentences:

- a. I will complete my work.
- b. You can write with a pen.
- c. Why did you jump in the water?
- d. He doesn't know the homework.
- e. Somu is a wonderful child.
- f. How do you stop a mad elephant?
- g. Do you come here often?
- h. She should follow the orders.

Q3. Circle the correct helping verb in each sentence.

- 1) Mandy (do, does) want to volunteer for the fundraiser.
- 2) Jessica (have, has) always got good grades.
- 3) Marcus (was, were) mowing the lawn when I got there.
- 4) I (have, has, had) to wash the dishes before I can go.
- 5) My brother (is, am, are) going to be six years old tomorrow.
- 6) I (is, am, are) working on my science fair project.
- 7) I (do, does, did) go to Disneyland last year.
- 8) Carlos and Jamal (is, are) arguing about the game.
- 9) My friend (have, has, had) already left for school when I called.
- 10) We (is, am, are) playing softball on Saturday.

Q4 .Find the helping verbs and the main verbs in the sentences. Write HV above the helping verb, and MV above the main verb.

1. We are going to the mall tomorrow.
2. We have not finished our study of the solar system.
3. Everyone had quietly gone to bed.
4. It must have rained all night.
5. We are going out for dinner after the play.
6. I was writing a story at my desk.
7. My brother is running in the track meet.
8. Kate and I have never skated in the park.
9. The small plane landed in the field.
10. My Dad will go to Florida in April.