

COMPOSITION QUESTIONS

1. Imagine a situation -- after his release from the prison, if Raju had not landed up in the village Mangal, but had gone back to his own town, how would he have led his life?
2. Imagine, if Velan had believed that Raju was an ordinary man and not a saint (after listening to Raju's narration of his life-story), what turn would the story have taken?
3. Think of a different ending of the novel and continue the story further.
4. Suppose your elder sister has made her career as a dance choreographer. She gets engaged to a boy who asks her to give up her career against her wish. How will you deal with this situation?
5. Have you done something to remove superstitions and illiteracy from the villages in India? Discuss.
6. Do you remember a story where destiny plays an important role in the life of the characters? Write a summary of that story.
7. Suppose you were a political leader, what would you have done to stop Raju from fasting?
8. Write an essay on one of the following topics :-
  - (i) Tourism in India.
  - (ii) Socio-economic condition of India
  - (iii) The role of Education in rural India
  - (iv) Hypocrisy is not a key to success.