

Chapter-3

Worksheet-1

Choose the correct option:

1. _____ and _____ have large iron ore deposits.

- (a) China and Bihar
- (b) China and India
- (c) China and Japan
- (d) China and Asia

2. Minerals occur in different types of

- (a) Water
- (b) Plateau
- (c) Rocks
- (d) Plain

3. Which country has no known mineral deposit in it?

- (a) Canada
- (b) India
- (c) Europe
- (d) Switzerland

4. _____ is the leading producer of iron-ore in the world.

- (a) America
- (b) Africa
- (c) Europe
- (d) Australia

5. Which country is the largest producer of high-grade iron-ore in the world?

- (a) Brazil
- (b) Australia
- (c) Italy
- (d) Zaire

State True or False:

- 6. Power plays a vital role in our lives.
- 7. Minerals are equally distributed across the globe.
- 8. Non-metallic minerals do not have metals.
- 9. Mining, drilling and quarrying are processes of extracting minerals.
- 10. Iron is a non-metallic mineral.

Answer the following questions:

- 11. Name the types of minerals.
- 12. Describe the types of mining.
- 13. Describe the type of minerals found in Europe.
- 14. What are the uses of minerals?
- 15. Which mineral deposits are found in Australia?
- 16. How can we conserve minerals?
- 17. Write the advantages and disadvantages of firewood.
- 18. Describe coal as a conventional source.
- 19. Describe how petroleum is obtained.
- 20. Explain the features of natural gas.