Q7: What is the meaning of Upanishad?

Ans: The literal meaning of Upanishad is 'approaching and sitting near' and the texts contain conversation between teachers and students. Mostly the ideas were presented through simple dialogues.

Q8: How were the other thinkers trying to understand the world during the Buddha period?

Ans: Around the time that Buddha was preaching, other thinkers also tried to find answers to difficult questions. They tried to understand life after death. Others wanted to know the purpose of sacrifices.

Q9: Explain the terms atman and Brahman.

Ans: During the period of Buddha some thinkers tried to understand what existed after the death in the universe. They felt that soul existed even after death; they called it as the atman or the individual soul, and Brahman the universal soul as. They believed that ultimately, both the atman and the Brahman became one.

Q10: How did Buddha spend the rest of his life?

Ans: Buddha spent the rest of his life travelling on foot, going from place to place, and teaching people.

Q11: Why did the Buddha leave his home? Explain briefly.

Ans: When Buddha was a young man, he left his house leaving his luxurious life in search of knowledge. He wandered for several years meeting and holding discussions with other thinkers. He finally decided to find his own path to realisation, and meditated for days on end under a peepal tree at Bodh Gaya in Bihar, where he attained enlightenment. It was only after attaining that knowledge that he was known as the Buddha or the Wise One. He gave his first sermon at Sarnath, near Varanasi. For the rest of his life he travelled on foot went from place to place and taught people.

Q12: What were monasteries and viharas?

Ans: Both Jaina and Buddhist monks went from place to place spreading the principles of their teachers throughout the year except during rainy season. It was very difficult to travel during the rainy season. During this season, their supporters made temporary shelters for them in gardens or the monks stayed in natural caves. With time the monks and nuns and their supporters realised the need for more permanent shelters and so monasteries were built. These were known as viharas.

Q13: Explain the system of the ashramas and who were expected to follow the ashramas?

Ans: The word ashram was used for a stage of life. Brahmin, kshatriya and vaishya men were expected to follow the system of ashrams.

1. They were to lead simple lives and study the Vedas during the early years of their life (brahmacharya).
2. Then they had to marry and live as householders (grihastha).
3. Then they had to live in the forest and meditate (vanaprastha).

4. Finally, they had to give up everything and become samnyasis.

The system of ashramas allowed men to spend some part of their lives in meditation. Generally, women were not allowed to study the Vedas, and they had to follow the ashramas chosen by their husbands.
