

Story of the swans and the tortoise

TEXTUAL QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Questions :-

Q.(a) See the pictures and write a story above the talkative tortoise.

Ans :- Once there was a tortoise and two swans. They were bosom friends. Tortoise always regretted because he could not fly like swans. One day the swans said the tortoise to bite a stick at the middle point and not to talk at all. The tortoise bit a stick at the middle point and promised not to talk at all. Then the swans took the tortoise flying. But the talkative tortoise started to talk and fall down.

From this lesson we learn that one should keep one's promise to overcome Various obstacles.